

Sonoma State University NAGPRA Campus Survey Self-Certification

_____ (printed name) has declined to have their office searched by the Office of Tribal Relations. This person will review their own office space (including closets, cabinets, drawers) for any Native American Human Remains and/or Cultural Items.

Please Note: All human remains and replicas that do not have purchasing documentation need to be reported to the Office of Tribal Relations for review even if they are not known to be Native American.

Please review the NAGPRA Compliance document before completing the certification.

I, _____ (printed name), certify that I have reviewed all areas of room # _____, my office, (including closets, cabinets, and drawers) and there are no Native American Human Remains and/or Cultural Items in this space.
